Introduction and Principles

Management of records by a Public Authority is a legal obligation (Section 46 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000).

The Code issued on 15 July 2021 sets out key principles about records and their management. These are the:

- Value of the information,
- Integrity of the information,
- Accountability for the information.

There are a range of statutory, regulatory and guidance that oblige us to accept, create, use, edit, store, and dispose of records. It is necessary to establish clarity about records keeping systems.

Aims

- To effectively manage the records that are created and are integral to the operation of the academy,
- To confirm a clear framework to manage records and information within the academy,
- To provide an environment where records are stored securely,
- To ensure that records are accessible to those who need them,
- To ensure that the academy workforce responsible for records management understand these obligations,
- To give effect to the s.46 Code of Practice our records management will take note of the principles it sets out.

Scope

This policy applies to the academy workforce and to all academy records, whether the records originate within the academy or are shared with the academy by other means.

Records that are shared with third parties as a result of consent, regulatory obligations or contractual agreements are within the scope of this policy.

In the academy, the records that we access and hold originate are stored in a variety of formats, that include physical, digital, electronic audio/visual records. Some are held locally in academy, others are hosted by third party providers.

All records are within the scope of this policy, records are required to be stored and retained in accordance with the document retention schedule attached to this policy.

Records may refer to individuals, financial planning tools, contracts, commercial organisations, public authorities, or charitable organisations. Some records will contain personal data.

Record retention and storage will be reviewed from time to time to ensure that the aims of this policy are met.

Responsibilities and actions

The governing board is ultimately responsible for this policy, however on a daily basis operational management of the policy is delegated to the headteacher and senior leadership team.

Management of the policy will be reviewed at governing board meetings on at least an annual basis.

The headteacher will be required to monitor compliance with this policy by undertaking at least an annual check to determine if records are stored securely and can be accessed appropriately, in accordance with requirements in this policy.

Within the academy responsibility for this policy will be with Claire Whiting, Headteacher.

An active retention policy is applied to confirm what records are to be retained and set out a timeline for their secure disposal.

Individual academy staff, contractors and volunteers and employees have personal responsibility for records within their control and day to day handling by ensuring that:

- Records are to be handled in accordance with the academy policies and good practice for secure storage and usage,
- Keep accurate records as required,
- Personal data contained in records is used in compliance with the UK GDPR and academy data protection policies and protocols,
- Personal information is shared appropriately and with a proper legal basis with any third party,
- Records are securely disposed in accordance with the academy's records retention schedule.

Child Abuse Records

The Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (Final Report 2022) recommends that any records that relate (or could relate) to sexual abuse should be retained for 75 years or 10 years past the retirement of a relevant member of staff, whichever is the longer term. We shall implement this and ensure that notification of the relevant records is made in the event of any transfer.

Creation and Management of School Archives

The National Archives has supplied the following information in relation to the creation and management of school archives:

If your academy is keeping an archive (e.g. of old photographs/ registers), either at your local Record Office or at your academy, it would be right to include a statement in your academy's data protection policy to advise the public that such archive is in place. This will help separate the personal data your academy keeps for operational reasons and those for archive reasons and in turn a much more manageable way to deal with data subject requests. The following paragraph could be included:

The academy archive is maintained as a resource to help inspire and equip current staff and pupils to understand and appreciate issues of identity, belonging and shared heritage; to prompt memories of academy-life among many generations of former pupils; and to serve as a research resource for all interested in the history of Redhill Primary Academy and the community it serves.
