Dear Parents of Children in Mrs Cartwright's Class

We are writing to inform you that Mrs Becky Williams will be returning from maternity leave to teach your child's class after Christmas. Mrs Cartwright will be returning to her post as Deputy Headteacher.

Mrs Williams has worked at our school for a number of years and many of the children will already know her. However, she will be joining the class via Teams today so that she and the children can meet again virtually. She will then meet the children, in person, on Friday 18th December before resuming her teaching role on our return to school on 5th January 2021.

We look forward to welcoming her back to school. We know that she is looking forward to teaching your child.

Kind regards

Claire Whiting
Headteacher
